

Friends of Fort Halifax Park Annual Banquet Scheduled for Saturday, February 11th.

Richard (Rich) Fox portraying pre-Revolutionary frontier statesman BENJAMIN FRANKLIN will be the guest speaker at the Friends of Fort Halifax ANNUAL DINNER and BASKET RAFFLE on February 11, 2017 at 6:00 pm. The event will again this year be held at the Halifax Ambulance Social Hall, 31 Bunker Hill Road, SR 225.

Mr. Fox, locally educated and currently residing in East Berlin, PA, first became seriously involved in living history in 2005 when given the opportunity to portray Ben Franklin in the TV series "Mysteries of the Free Masons." Since then he has lectured widely and appeared in other film and television productions. Most recently, he is scheduled to portray Mr. Franklin in a Gingrich Foundation program scheduled to be released later this year.

The meal at the annual fund-raising event will be roast turkey with all the trimmings. The traditional basket raffle and Mr. Fox's presentation will follow. All proceeds from the event go to support Friends of Fort Halifax Park participation in development, maintenance, and programing at Halifax Township's 172-acre Ft. Halifax Park

This annual program, features good food, great prizes, an entertaining speaker, and an opportunity to share with friends in support of Ft. Halifax Park. Ticket prices are adults $15 ($17 at the door), children ages 6-12 $8 and under 5 free. Advance tickets are available from local taxidermist Bob Swope at 903-7979.
